

Guidance for the Joining in Light Brigade Joining in Light Miracle Worksheet

From Jesus

In A Course in Miracles I emphasize the value of joining—joining with me in a moment of Light—and joining with your brother as the symbol in your mind that you are loved by God. Your brother is a symbol of the Divine Light within YOU, unless you would label him otherwise and thus in turn limit your experience of yourself. In this you deny your Divine power.

In Jesus: A New Covenant ACIM I emphasize that every being can hear my voice. Every being. There are no exceptions. If you are called to the Light Circles you are called in holy purpose to hear my voice and speak my voice as I will direct you. Joining with your brother is merely an opportunity to confirm that my voice speaks through your brother to YOU, and that you can hear my voice clearly and express what I say to you, to your brother. So joining is an opportunity for you to listen to me and speak my voice—the words as given by me to you. Thus in joining you honor yourself, the Divine power you have been given to see easily through all denials.

You will also learn the value of asking me to help reveal to you the areas in your mind where you deny that you are holy, whole and complete. To ask me to reveal to you what you deny and how you use so many excuses to deny who you are through desire to experience something other than supreme happiness. This new way of seeing, given by me, is specific. You are to ask me which miracles to perform and when to perform them, and hear my answer. It will always be the same, simple and direct.

This is Honesty of God; see that you are Light, admit where you deny the Light and cease to deny the Light by asking for a miracle. So when you join you will be calling to me, and you will be heard and answered, so that you can build confidence that you are indeed directed by the One who knows, the One who will demonstrate to you that all the fears—every thought, feeling and emotion that you experience—appears because you desire it, and that this need not be. So when you feel upset, join quickly, and ask me how to handle it. Ask me for the steps to take to recognize that it is indeed a desire, and that indeed, although you have denied many miracles, you can choose a miracle any time, by asking for it. And so it shall be given unto you. This will help train you to go to Light first, in all things. In this you will cease to deny that indeed, you are happiness.

Steps given for joining.

1. When you are upset, ask me quickly for help. Let me direct you, whether you are to join with a brother or work with me in each case.
2. When you join with a brother, pray together and ask me to help you. Focus on the Light within, the Light that you share, the only thing that is real.
3. Ask me specifically what miracles need to be performed. Ask me what my guidance is for you to look at in this joining, and share it with your brother.
4. If an upset comes to mind that you would like help with, share it. For instance, if you are upset, admit you have a desire to feel upset. State the desired experience—what desire do you have to not be at peace? This is not the time for telling stories of your experience, as this will make them seem real. This is the time to admit you desire an experience that is not peaceful and admit that you are willing to see it another way.

Guidance for the Joining in Light Brigade

Joining in Light Miracle Worksheet

Example 1: If you feel sick, you desire an experience of sickness. Ask me to show you what is below your level of awareness that is miscreating the experience of sickness. What miracles are needed to clear this misperception of sickness? What desire am I trying to hide from the Light beneath this feeling of sickness?

Example 2: If you feel angry or upset, sad or frustrated you desire an experience of feeling angry, upset, sad or frustrated. What miracles are needed to clear this misperception—the choice to feel anger/upset? Ask me to show you what is below your level of awareness that is miscreating the experience of upset (anger, sad, frustrated...). What is the desire for the experience of anger or upset is trying to hide from the Light of truth?

5. I will remind you not to look upon the error and make it real. This is a denial of yourself. Look not at the experience; join with me to look directly at the desire below the experience. Ask me if you desire the experience that you are having (e.g. fear, upset, etc.) and if I tell you that you do desire it, admit that you do indeed desire the experience. Admission of the desire is powerful—it is no longer holding on to the denial that you are indeed denying Divinity. This leads to very fast release and acceptance of the miracle. In other words you are admitting that you do have a desire to deny that you are Light through experience. Ask me then what to do, and listen for the answer. Share my answer with your brother.
6. If you are not clear, ask your brother what he hears from me, and listen when he shares it.
7. Ask me whether you are ready for the miracle, for I will tell you if you have a hidden desire to deny the miracle. Ask me if there is anything else you need to see. When I tell you the time is right for a miracle, then you will see it is already accomplished. This will train you to put all miracles under my control, and ask for my help for all miracles. I am in charge of the Atonement and thus know which miracles are to be performed and what timing is best for miracles as you desire to refuse yourself miracles and thus suffer the effects of not experiencing miracles and hearing my voice, both of which are natural to you. This is what I mean when I say that miracles must not be under conscious control, as consciousness is a desire to control and thus limit miracles. Thus you must rely on my guidance in this regard.

These joinings will train you that you can indeed come to me for everything, and that you will be helped with willingness to be shown that completion is your only function. All pain is the desire to deny that you can hear my voice, and my voice is given to show you that pain is not natural to you and that there is a way of peace that surpasses the understanding of this world.

This is what I meant when I said, “I am with you until the end of time.” You will see that below every desire you have kept below your awareness, you have a desire to deny yourself Love, and to experience death through the choice to be separate from your Creator. Yet as you accept the naturalness of my voice to you, you will see that it is your voice within that you hear and follow, the voice of truth that is most natural to you. And in this you will experience the end of time, the end of death, the end of limitation, as these are all impossible ideas that arise in timeless, infinite, unchanging Love.
